HOSPITAL
COUNCIL of WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Overview:

The Hospital & Healthsystem Association of Pennsylvania (HAP), The Health Care Improvement Foundation (HCIF), and the Hospital Council of Western Pennsylvania (HCWP) are pleased to provide this FREE audioconference, which is being underwritten by Medline Industries, Inc.

This audioconference will present the Final Consensus Statement on SCALE: Skin Changes At Life's End that was released on October 1, 2009. Dr. Diane Krasner, co-chair of the SCALE Panel, will highlight the salient points of each of the ten statements. Examples of how SCALE can be incorporated into plans of care for patients across the continuum of care will be discussed.

Program Objectives:

By the end of the audioconference, the participant will be able to:

- Analyze the importance of the ten SCALE Consensus Statements for his/her own practice setting.
- Develop a plan of care for a palliative patient with an unstageable sacral pressure ulcer with eschar.

Who Should Attend:

This program will be of particular benefit to health care providers including physicians, wound care specialists, nursing staff, direct care workers, and administrative leaders.

Faculty:

Diane Krasner, PhD, RN, CWCN, CWS, BCLNC, FAAN

Dr. Krasner is a board-certified wound specialist and lead co-editor of Chronic Wound Care: A Clinical Source Book for Healthcare Professionals, 4th edition (2007). She is the WOCN at Rest Haven Rehabilitation and Nursing Center and a wound and skin care consultant in York, PA. Since 1992, Dr. Krasner has served on the Board of Directors of several national wound care organizations, including the American Academy of Wound Management, The Association for the Advancement of Wound Care, and the National Pressure Ulcer Advisory Panel.

Certificate of Attendance:

A general certificate of attendance will be emailed to all participants. Some national, state, and local licensing boards and professional organizations will grant continuing education credits for attendance when you submit the course outline (save the brochure) and your certificate of attendance. It is recommended you contact your own board or organization to find out what is required.

How the Audioconference Will Work:

There is no limit to the number of staff from your office per connection who can tune in to the seminar via speakerphone. In order to minimize costs, staff from the same organization must use the same connection to listen to this audioconference. Interested participants are required to pre-register to ensure that enough lines are reserved and that they receive dial-in instructions and materials ahead of time.

Organizations will be billed $99 for each additional telephone line that connects to the audioconference.

Upon receipt of registration, confirmation will be emailed to the registrant. Dial-in instructions will be emailed to each registrant's email address approximately 48 hours prior to the conference, including information on how to obtain handout materials for the conference. If you do not receive an email by this date, please email mbarth@haponline.org.

Please register only one name per connection.

Registration Deadline: Friday, November 27, 2009

Early registration is encouraged for optimal processing of conference materials.
